VI. New Business:

A. February Planning Meeting

Mr. Lipuma reminded the committee that the February planning session will take place Monday, February 1st at 8:00a.m at Cassique clubhouse in the Persimmons room. All proposals should be made at the planning session. Mr. Lipuma stated the 2010/2011 season planning will be based on a budget of $70, 000. No member should present a large dollar event. He advised that the Symphony and Ballet should seek ATAX funding. The deadline for ATAX forms will be available in February. The ATAX Committee meets in April for approval. He distributed the the list below for the session's guidelines:

Budget
Events $66,000	Admin $2,500
Contgy $4,000

Total $70,000

Considerations

- Target for about 20 “major” events
- Assume CSO full Orchestra funded by ATAX
- If CBT not funded by ATAX provide for one performance
- Target cost for majority if events $1,500-$4,500
- Limit cost of December Holiday Event to $7,500
- Plan one outreach focused event
- Look for new artists and themes
- Hold back some funds for “Late Breaking” Events

Committee Members’ Comments:

Mrs. Burnaford shared the Island Connection featured an article and picture about the Rick Reinert painting demonstration events. The picture of Mr. Lipuma presenting the check to Rick Reinert that he donated to high school art programs.

Mr. Lipuma stated that Kiawah Property Owners beginning February 1st will be given ticket priority 3 working days prior to the ticket release date. He stated the council did not think this would be a problem with the events funded by ATAX on Kiawah because the state mandates how the money is spent but not how it’s managed.
